

Ms Geraldine Ang

I believe that every learner deserves equal access to quality education and the right support to reach their fullest potential. I am passionate about building an inclusive school community where every small effort, whether it is a kind gesture, a classroom adjustment, or a conversation that helps to create a culture of acceptance and belonging. Together, I believe we can make education a meaningful and empowering experience for all.

Special Needs Education
Officer

York Hill
Campus

Learners for Life. Leaders of Integrity. Contributors with Compassion.